

Please respect the 10th Ammendment to the U.S. Constitution and allow the states to legislate their own laws. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law was enacted by our locally elected representatives and serves the state of Indiana well. The Federal Government has its own responsibilities and should not try to impose itself on our individual states.

Thank you,
Julie Wise
765-683-0517